The Luxe Keto Experience

The dish is withdrawal from natural sexual pleasure and its joy. But rather than having to face the monastic trappings of celibacy, they are made to believe they are choosing this lifestyle through the co-option of the keto diet. Luxe Keto and similar campaigns invite one to eschew natural foods and liberate the body from torpor and confusion through replacing the variety of nature with a single bland response: fat. Hence, Luxe Keto removes citizenship from nature and naturalism and promises that through this rejection of ordinary life and nature, one can gain entry to another realm of higher pleasures and luxury promises: "ENJOY GOURMET KETO MEALS & EXQUISITE DESSERTS WITHOUT THE GUILT OR ADVERSE SIDE EFFECTS."™ Here is a two-fold co-option. First, instead of being subject to bland foods through what coerces the palate into a false submission (as in prison food), we now have the opportunity to derive gratification, pleasure and taste by paying to take leave of nature altogether. This is a far better mode of withdrawal than the one offered by prison food programmers. (However, as with all other aspects of keto, greed is its implicit modus operandi.) Those of us confined to grey bile, the yellow juice cherished by ketotians for its magical powers to "burn body fat"™ through the body's™ generation of ketones, are forever excluded. Second, there is a technological use of discipline. We need only to pay attention to the euphoric claims. And the right food awaits. No more dull meals and hardships of peasant life, only splendour and the fields of flowers that ketotians can explore. No more greyness of material existence. Instead, we get Luxe "So we must accept the withdrawal and inhibition of appetites promoted by keto. We must pay the fee. Enjoy nature as a "gourmet meal"™. Enjoy conforming to the taste programmer of today's™ commanding grays. Do it with Luxe. Luxe Keto and similar campaigns invite you to decide not to serve nature freely, but to enjoy its prohibition and imprisonment if you choose to partake of the "luxury"™ keto.
